ALMA MATER

One thousand strong sing we a song,
Fountain Hill to thee;
Oh, worthy art thou of fame!
Our hearts we pledge honoring thee
Fairest of schools;
Belov'd is thy glorious name,
Belov'd is thy glorious name.
Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, Fountain Hill, our Alma Mater!

Chorus

Oh, Fountain Hill forever,
Our Alma Mater dear,
We crown thee fairest high school,
Thy name we love to hear,
Long reign in royal splendor,
Our hearts shall be thy throne!
Oh, Fountain Hill, our High Shcool,
Thou reignest alone.

VOLUME TWO NINETEEN THIRTY-EIGHT

FOREWORD

To you, the members of the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty - eight, the staff presents this result of its efforts, the Nineteen Hundred Thirty-eight edition of Memoirs, with the hope that it will recall fond memories of friends and associates in the future.

DEDICATION

To Mr. Elmer F. Greene, our principal, teacher, guide, and friend, we the Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-eight, dedicate this second volume of our yearbook Memoirs.

Acknowledgments

THE Memoirs Staff wishes to express its gratitude and appreciation to the following people who have so generously aided in the preparation of this book:

Mr. Elmer F. Greene
for his splendid cooperation.

Miss S. Ruth Funk
for her supervision of the art material in the book.

Mr. Theodore A. Brown
for his helpful criticism.

Eleanor Landis, Claire Jacoby, and Gerald Bachman
for their contribution to the Junior section.

Mr. Gribbin's Senior Typing Class for their assistance in the preparation of the copy.

Mr. David McCaa and Mr. Donald McCaa, photographers.

Mr. R. J. Barton of Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company.

Mr. Earl M. Schaffer of Lehigh Printing Corporation.

Francis Bender, Francis Brown, Doris English, Harvey Moser, Philomena Oricko, Bertha Pongracz, Congretta Ronca, and Earl Sugg for their helping hand in the preparation of write-ups.

TO you, members of the Class of 1938, I extend congratulations on your completion of our High School course and to you I extend my sincerest wishes for success in whatever field of activity your further endeavors may be.

It has been my privilege to work with you as teacher and as principal, with many of you through the Grades, the Junior High and the High School; with others only a comparatively short time.

I have always been deeply interested in your progress and in your welfare. Now that you leave our school, I hope and trust that you will exert a strong influence for good wherever you may be, that you have the courage to do that which is right, that you are determined to "carry through" though many obstacles may beset, though there may be many hours of discouragement and even failure.

May you make an earnest effort to be of service to those about you and may you do your part, humble as it may be, to help to solve the many problems that cause the unrest of today and the apprehension for the future.

Thus will you prove to be true alumni of the school.

JOHN S. STETTLER,
Supervising Principal.

TO the members of this class my earnest wish is that you use in life those principles which have been taught to you in school. Your school has tried to offer you a choice of knowledge which you need for carrying on daily activities in life. Whether or not you will succeed in your life's undertaking depends upon how you apply this knowledge.

Each one of you has my best wish for a happy future. Whatever walk of life you choose, may your actions bring an honor to yourself and to your school.

ELMER F. GREENE,
High School Principal.

Theodore A. Brown

A pleasing personality and a cheerful disposition have made Mr. Brown the confidant of the Class of '38. Chosen by them as class adviser, he has unceasingly devoted his time to their interests. Following his graduation from Moravian College with a B.A. degree, Mr. Brown began his teaching career at Fountain Hill in 1933. The gratitude of the Class of '38 is extended to Mr. Brown and Miss Sand, to whose combined efforts it owes the success of its activities.

Nellie I. Sand

Miss Sand, although a comparatively new addition to the faculty, had no difficulty in winning her way into the hearts of the Seniors as is shown by the fact that she was chosen as one of their class advisers. She came to Fountain Hill two years ago after having received a B.S. degree in Physical Education at West Chester State Teachers' College. The Class of '38 deeply appreciates the interest she has shown in all its undertakings.

Anna May Todd

Another reason for Fountain Hill High School's reputation for a capable faculty is Miss Todd. She assumed her teaching duties at Fountain Hill in 1929, previous to which she graduated from Moravian Seminary and College for Women with a B.A. degree. She has since received an M.A. degree at Lehigh University. To the untiring and invaluable guidance and assistance of Miss Todd, the Seniors of '38 are deeply indebted for their yearbook.

SENIORS

Senior Class History

THE Class of 1938 launched its meteoric career in high school as Sophomores of the Fountain Hill Junior-Senior High School.

At the outset of our initial year as high school students, we, as undergraduates, were deemed too lowly to aspire to the privilege of electing class officers for the current year. Thus, when we entered our Sophomore year, we were at a twofold disadvantage since, besides the above, we had no senior class to guide us along the way.

The inauguration of the twelfth year of high school at Fountain Hill severed all hopes that our class would follow in the footsteps of our predecessors. In accordance with the custom of junior classes the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chester Klotz, president; George Spangenberg, vice president; Marion Muhr, secretary; James Moyer, treasurer.

Our Junior year was a most exciting one, with the following events standing out in our memories: the Jundra Club production of three one-act plays under the able coaching of Miss Kathryn Deily, and the high-light of the entire Junior year, the Junior Prom, which found most of the Junior debs in their first evening gowns and the boys in their best bib and tucker. Our Junior year was brought to a dramatic close with the receiving of our class jewelry in time to sport it at our Junior Prom.

September 8, 1937 ushered in a new era of learning for us as Seniors, when we marched through the portals of the new and magnificent Fountain Hill High School for the first time. Our entrance into the new school also ushered in a new set of student rules and regulations such as: no loitering, no gum chewing, no date making in halls, and no two-way traffic. All in all we had a swell time. With the aid and assistance of our ever-faithful faculty we finally mastered the one-way traffic and learned how to "jimmy" our lockers.

After the first few days of hubbub had subsided, we settled down to real business and elected the following officers for the Senior Class: Frank Mohap, president; Edward Mittal, vice-president; Marion Muhr, secretary; Francis Bender, treasurer.

Our Senior year at high school was the most enjoyable of all. We sponsored many successful functions including the sensational Class Minstrel, "Shirt Sleeves," Geraldine Snyder's Dance Revue, theater benefits, and the Senior Ball.

The close of the Senior year found us in the usual hustle and bustle of being fitted for caps and gowns, thus consummating our high school years, which, we are sorry to state, went faster than anyone had anticipated.

It is with regret that we terminate these happiest days of our lives, bearing this thought in mind — that we, the Senior Class of 1938, are the first Senior Class to graduate from the newly erected Fountain Hill High School.

MARION E. MUHR, '38.

INDIVIDUALS

Francis Paul Bender "Boy" "Bender"

"Extra! Extra! Read all about it." Francis Bender is peddling the school paper again. Usually a quiet and reserved person, he's right in there cheering for all he's worth where the Tatler is concerned. If this boy continues in this same line of activity with his usual enthusiasm, Fountain Hill will soon have its own newspaper.

Commercial Course

Basketball 4; Class Treasurer 4; Tatler Staff 2, 3, 4.

Stephen Bobick "Steve" "Bobick"

Here is a boy who usually seems very quiet to strangers, but to his friends, he is just the opposite. One may usually find him at the roller skating rinks when no other pastime presents itself. Although a cheerleader, this boy is the safety valve on our wild spirits of excitement during a tense game, for no matter how excited others may be, he is perpetually calm.

Commercial Course

Cheerleader 2, 3, 4; Tatler Staff 2; Glee Club 2, 3; Dancing Club 4; Science Club 3.

Edward Franklin Brown "Brun"

Three years ago Brownie came to us from Salisbury Township Schools. He is an unassuming individual who goes about his business with an air of confidence. He is rather short of stature and of quiet disposition. Although we know nothing of his plans for the future, we wish him success in whatever he undertakes.

Commercial Course

Athletic Club 2, 3; Glee Club 4; Industrial Arts Theatre Club 4.

Francis Brown "Pete"

When a humorous remark is made in class, there is always one laugh that is more audible than the others — this is Pete's. Pete is the type that will laugh at any joke or pun. As to talent, we know he has an abundance of it in the form of the ability to play a red-hot trumpet, for its notes have been introduced to us many times in various programs and orchestras. Pete hopes to become a famous trumpet-player.

Commercial Course

Dramatic Club 4; Athletic Club 2, 3; Band 3, 4; A. A. Council 4; Glee Club 4; Star-dusters 2, 3.

Anna Bruno "Anne"

Quietness, reserve and good nature are Anna's most prominent characteristics. Anna is the type of girl whose appealing smile and friendly disposition have won her the friendship of all her classmates. Anna has not revealed her plans for the future, but we know she has the ability to do almost anything well, and we're quite certain she'll fulfill our expectations.

Commercial Course

Home Economics Club 2; Dancing Club 4.

Norman LeRoy Carl "Yok"

Probably the most remarkable part of this dreamy-eyed boy's anatomy is his pair of artistic hands. These hands have enabled him to create marvelous works of art. Studies in charcoal, in oil, in water-color, trinkets in copper, in wood, in clay — all these and more are created by this prodigy of Miss Funk. A prize won at the Allentown Fair this past year is proof that his talents are already being recognized.

Commercial Course

Band 3, 4; Art Club 2, 3, 4.

Frank J. Csrnko "Duke"

When you hear the girls talking about a well-dressed lad, you can be sure they mean Frank. His customarily neat attire proves to us that he knows his fashions. He has a quiet manner about him, but this doesn't fool anyone. We know that he can be the life of the party. Some day Frank will be a model for what the well-dressed man is wearing.

Commercial Course

Science Club 3; Athletic Club 2.

Marjorie Delp "Bebe" "Delpy"

"The score was 6-3, 6-2; we knew she'd win." When you hear anything like that, you can be sure they are talking about Marg. If anyone can play tennis, Margy surely can. For the last two years she has been our tennis champion. Aside from being a tennis star, she is an industrious person. Someday she may be the center of attraction on the famous courts of Wimbledon.

Commercial Course

Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Tatler Staff 4.

James Eddinger "Jimmy"

Jimmy is the prodigal son of the Senior Class. He left us during his freshman year to attend another high school, but returned to us for his senior year. His willingness to participate in all school affairs has helped him to re-establish himself as one of the top ranking fellows in our class. Jimmy's main ambition is to become a crooner for a well-known radio orchestra.

General Course

Science Club 4; Dancing Club 4.

Doris Louise English "Dor" "Dorie"

Doris is one of the most attractive girls in the Senior Class. Although of a rather quiet disposition, she's always full of fun. Her outstanding abilities are centered around music and designing. As Fountain Hill's nightingale, her golden voice has thrilled many an eager audience and we all sincerely hope that we may often have the pleasure of hearing her in the future.

General Course

Cheerleader 2; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Michael J. Ford Jr. "Mike"

Tall, blond, and as happy-go-lucky as he is big, Mike is the most carefree member of our class. We know that the serious expression on his face, as he rambles through the halls, is there only to fool the faculty. Generally rather quiet, he is always ready with a wise remark. If appearance or manner of dress has any influence on careers, his lies in the field of journalism.

Commercial Course

Athletic Club 2; Tatler Staff 3, 4; Harmonica Club 2.

Dorothy Gaal "Dot" "D. A."

Dot, dash and dimples — these personify Dorothy. She's that chubby imp with the funny giggle. Dorothy knows how to take her part in everything, especially in an argument. Call on Dorothy for anything around Fountain Hill and she will bounce right in the middle of it. She would like to take up art and we feel sure she will be successful in it or any other career she chooses.

Scientific Course

Dramatic Club 4; Memoirs Staff 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Debate Club 2, 3; Oratorical Contest 2, 3; Basketball 2, 4.

Michael Geiger "Micky"

A whistle blows, the game begins, and on the court you will be sure to find "Micky." Geiger, a stockily built youth, is one of our outstanding athletes whose popularity renders an introduction unnecessary. If an amiable personality and outstanding athletic ability make for success,Geiger's possibilities are unlimited.

Scientific Course

Basketball 3, 4; Science Club 4; Athletic Club 3; A. A. Vice President 3, President 4.

Evelyn Pauline Hafner "Evey"

Here's one girl in the Senior Class who thinks so much of Fountain Hill that for two years she has come from West Bethlehem to attend our school. Evelyn can always be counted upon to give the correct answer to any question asked. She is one of the few commercial students achieving a "A" average consistently. Her classical features and secretarial ability will make her a striking asset to any office.

Commercial Course

Dramatic Club 3; Memoirs Staff 4; Tatler Staff 4.

Betty Ann Hagy "Bets"

Betty is our small but vivacious brunette with a super-abundance of personality. She possesses a "gift of gab," which is always utilized to its utmost extent. Her energy, however, is not entirely consumed by talking, since dramatics and gum chewing also take their share of her time. We hope she will continue to talk her way into everyone's heart.

Commercial Course

Dramatic Club 3, 4; Memoirs Staff 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Oratorical Contest 2.

Thomas Haney "Speed" "Bill"

This well-proportioned gentleman belongs to that group of the fortunate few who can wear anything in clothes and look very well dressed. His "Esquirean" appearance plus a very genial personality (not to mention his cute boyish giggle) should pave the way for a brilliant future.

Commercial Course

Dramatic Club 4; Memoirs Staff 4; Tatler Staff 3; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Catherine Harle "Kitty"

Blue eyes, reddish blonde hair, and a friendly smile describe Catherine in a few words. Her pleasing personality and sympathetic disposition have created for her a host of lasting friendships. Catherine's talents are both artistic and dramatic. Who will ever be able to forget her Pennsylvania German skits?

Scientific Course

Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

James M. Hobar "Jim"

Fountain Hill's contribution to toothpaste ads is this dimpled, laughing-eyed specimen of humanity known to us all as Jimmy. His flashing smile and sparkling wit have won him high esteem, especially among members of the fair sex. A crack rifle shot, a leading man in many of our operatic and dramatic performances, and above all, a ladies' man — that's Jimmy all over.

Scientific Course

Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Oratorical Contest 2; Memoirs Staff 4.

Claire Mae Huff "Huffy"

If you see a tall, slender, happy-go-lucky girl, always laughing and giggling, you are looking at Claire. She is a lively member of our class who enjoys dancing immensely. It can be said that she is never at a loss for words, for she loves to talk. She has been a good commercial student — may she be worthy as a secretary!

Commercial Course

Basketball 2, 3; Tatler Staff 3; Art Club 2; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Wallace R. Johnson "Joe" "Wally"

"Why hurry? I'll get there." How often have we heard these words from Johnson, a happy-go-lucky chap, whose main ambition is to get through school with the least possible effort. Joe has inclinations toward U. S. Army service when he leaves school, which may account for the fact that he is often to be found at the Bethlehem Armory.

Commercial Course

Science Club 2, 3; Tatler Staff 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Chester Klotz "Chet"

Chet's the great big fellow with the deep throaty voice. He is quiet and bashful with the opposite sex, but this doesn't mean that he isn't an asset to Fountain Hill. His ability to handle a basketball has made him one of our star players. With his good sportsmanship and quiet nature we believe that he will go far in whatever field he chooses.

Commercial Course

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Class President 3.

Lewis Leach Jr. "Slim"

On Major Bowe's program there are cowboys from New Jersey; in Fountain Hill there is a cowboy from Gauffs Hill; this is our Lewis. "Slim" is always ready with a song or a one-man band selection on his harmonica and guitar. He is one of our rare blonds, a happy-go-lucky fellow, with a smile on his face no matter where he is or what he is doing.

Scientific Course

Home Economics Club 4; Science Club 3; Athletic Club 2; A. A. Council 2; Glee Club 3, 4; Harmonica Club 3; Oratorical Contest 2.

Angeline Lorenzo "Angel"

The Spanish senorita of our class is Angeline. She is small and stout, and possesses a very fiery temper. Angeline came to Fountain Hill from Liberty High School during her junior year. Angeline expects to enter one of our larger colleges when she leaves our Alma Mater.

General Course

Glee Club 3; Dancing Club 4.

Martha M. Malburg "Matz" "Snoozie"

Curls, curls, and more curls — red ones at that — are seen forever bobbing up and down above a clean-cut freckled face. Contrary to the popular belief, Martha does not have a fiery temper, but is one of the most pleasant and popular girls in the class. Her versatility is exemplified by her work in dramatics, her high scholastic rating, and her ability on the basketball court.

Academic Course

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; A. A. Council 3; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Memoirs Staff 4.

Charles H. Miller "Shorty"

"F-O-U-N-T-A-I-N H-I-L-L" Charlie's booming voice rings out as he leads our school in another cheer. A full five feet of energy, "Shorty" will always be remembered as our outstanding cheerleader. His witty remarks and jokes make him a great favorite among his classmates. If he pursues a career with the same enthusiasm as that which he displayed in school, we are confident that he will be a great success.

Commercial Course

Cheerleader 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4.

Edward G. Mittal "Eddie"

Eddie, the scholar of the class, can be recognized by his intelligent expression. He's a bashful, quiet boy, who is forever studying. He possesses the rare gift of subtle humor. Although he seems to avoid the opposite sex, he is well liked by everyone. He received excellent grades and we hope that this success may follow him wherever he may go.

Commercial Course

Science Club 2; Memoirs Staff 4; Class Vice President 4; Tatler Staff 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Frank J. Mohap

Frank is that tall, dark, well built lad possessing a manly stride and a set of Herculean muscles. His ability at splitting the meshes has helped Fountain Hill win a major position in the Two-County League. He was elected to guide his class through its last year at high school.

Commercial Course

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Science Club 3; Athletic Club 2; Class President 4.

Harvey Edward Moser

The old adage, "Silence is golden," must have made a deep impression on Harvey, for he seems to be in quest of a fortune by strict adherence to it. Although our funniest jokes fail to elicit even a smile, Harvey occasionally comes out of his seclusion to delight us with his dry humor. The greatest contradiction in his make-up is his participation in the band, as (of all things) a trombonist.

Commercial Course

Athletic Club 2, 3; Band 3, 4; Tatler Staff 4.

James K. Moyer "Jimmy"

James is a "what d'ya call it?" — a-a tall Irishman. We feel justified in using this expression because he himself has adopted it as his standard introductory phrase when answering any question. He is the boy who achieved fame for his Alma Mater by copping first honors in the bookkeeping event at the Pennsylvania Commercial Contest held at Bloomsburg.

Commercial Course

Science Club 2; Class Treasurer 3; Tatler Staff 3, 4; Commercial Contest 2, 3; Glee Club 3, 4.

Marion Elizabeth Muhr "Toots"

"We will now hear the secretary's report." That is where "Toots" comes in, for she has probably been secretary of more school organizations than any other student. Anywhere there is excitement you can usually find "Toots". She is a good cure for the blues, her continual wit keeps everyone laughing and accounts for her popularity with both sexes.

Scientific Course

Basketball 2; Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Memoirs Staff 4; Class Secretary 3, 4; A. A. Secretary 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4.

Robert Nansteel "Bob"

Bob's appearance on the mound and his ability to pitch the old apple down the alley have awed many a foe of our baseball team. Although also intensely interested in wrestling, his talents do not lie entirely along athletic lines. Bob's knack at playing a guitar, together with his dry humor, seems to make him the perfect cowboy. He is also proficient in his studies, particularly along scientific and mathematical lines.

General Course

Science Club 3, 4; Art Club 2; Industrial Arts Theater Club 4; Harmonica Club 3.

Philomena M. Oricko "Phil"

Flashing dark eyes, black wavy hair and an olive skin proclaim Phil a typical daughter of Italy. Her sparkling wit and charm make her the center of any group. She is ever ready to join in any athletic event, and when she does, she's sure to stand out from the crowd. Her keen appreciation of art and music is also noteworthy.

Commercial Course

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club 4; Tatler Staff 3; Glee Club 3, 4; Debate Club 2, 3; Oratorical Contest 2, 3.

Robert Joseph Ormiston "Max" "Bob"

"The harmonica wizard of Fountain Hill" — that is how we will remember Bob. He is the third portion of our hill-billy unit, and can also make a guitar talk five different languages. Bob is of the long and lanky type, with a fine head topped by a mass of decidedly curly dark hair. His popularity with all who know him is due in part to his ability to tell and hear jokes.

General Course

Art Club 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Dancing Club 4; Harmonica Club 3.

Grace Louise Overdorf "Gracie"

Grace is the girl who is always seen hurrying through the halls laden with books and pencils. She's generally chattering when you see her, although it isn't about lessons. Grace is one of the best commercial students of the class. Grace possesses dark wavy hair, brown eyes and a great deal of musical ability. Most of her time is spent at the piano, lessons and business meetings.

Commercial Course

Tatler Staff 2, 4; Glee Club 2, 4; Junior Red Cross Council Representative 2, 3, 4.

William Pfeifle "Bill"

Bill is that long, lean and lanky student with sandy hair and smiling eyes. His pet aversion is playing the fiddle, but it is our hope that if his attitude changes, he may someday become a second Rubinoff. He can be either a quiet or a noisy individual, his disposition varying according to his mood and environment.

Commercial Course

Athletic Club 2, 3.

Bertha Amelia Pongracz "Bert"

See that tall dark girl with a "continental and very feminine air" coming down the hall? Well, that couldn't be anyone but Bertha. Bertha is very popular, a good sport and always on hand for a good time. She is one of our few students who has struggled through four years of Latin and we feel sure she will succeed along that line.

Academic Course

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Tatler Staff 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Debate Club 2, 3.

Edward Posch "Wally"

Posch is a short well-built fellow who seems to be always dreaming. Whenever a sarcastic remark is made in history class, all eyes are immediately focused on Posch. His dry humor has been the source of many funny incidents. The least of his worries, as we all are inclined to believe, is studies.

Commercial Course

Home Economics Club 4; Art Club 2, 3.

Congetta Ronca "Dolly"

Dolly is a pretty, dark-haired, dark-eyed Italian girl, displaying a radiant smile and sparkling eyes. She is a bundle of energy, loves fun and jokes, and is usually heard ta-te-ta-ing some popular song. We believe she also likes to talk a lot. May she have success in whatever she undertakes.

Commercial Course

Dramatic Club 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Debate Club 3; Oratorical Contest 3.

Harold Shelly "Meno" "Hiram"

Hiram, a rather tall, gangling youth, is Coopersburg's contribution to the Class of '38. In class he seems always a bit flustered. When called upon to answer a question, he rises with shirt-tails dangling, turns red in the face, and stutters and stammers out his reply. But among us all he is a very talkative, good-natured fellow. He is adept at tootin' the tuba, and acting the part of an adolescent youngster in dramatic productions.

General Course

Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Band 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Stardusters 3.

Eugene H. Shurts "Jeep" "Gene"

A small boy, a hearty laugh, and a perfectly creased pair of pants — that's Eugene. Eugene is one of our quiet boys, as far as quietness among the Seniors goes. He is always ready with a good joke and a hearty chuckle. He is one of the flashiest dressers in the class. Small but mighty, he is bound to succeed.

Commercial Course

Athletic Club 2; Industrial Arts Theater Club 4.

Robert W. Sloyer "Bob"

Robert is a very quiet boy, who seldom smiles. No, he isn't snobbish, he is just very reserved and minds his own business. He is well liked by everyone, although he is quite shy toward the fairer sex. Robert is well-known in basketball circles, formerly as a member of the Nativity team and now as a member of the high school team.

Commercial Course

Basketball 4; Athletic Club 2.

Beatrice Snyder "Beatsie"

Beatrice, with her rapid speech and mincing movements, is always welcome wherever she goes. She is a small, compact bundle of temperament under a crop of long, blonde hair. Her sunny disposition is usually hidden behind a frown, but at the proper moment seems to reach out and win her many friends. She is one of our few commercial students who manage to keep out of trouble.

Commercial Course

Basketball 4; Dramatic Club 4; Tatler Staff 2, 3; Glee Club 2, 3, 4; Junior Red Cross Representative 3, 4.

George C. Spangenberg "Spongie"

Tall, handsome, a patch of brown hair combed back from a pleasantly smiling face describes "Spongie." He is a good natured fellow who is ready for an argument at any time. He can usually be found around our prize examples of femininity. We're banking on your success in life, so don't let us down.

Commercial Course

Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Memoirs Staff 4; Class Vice President 3; Glee Club 2, 3.

John Spirk "Johnnie" "Spirky"

"Who is that blond, good-looking boy dribbling up the floor and sinking the ball in the basket?" Of course, everyone knows it is John. In John we find the rarely combined qualities of star athlete and honor student. He is the possessor of a very clever wit. His pleasing personality and perseverance are sure to aid him in achieving his aim in life.

Scientific Course

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Science Club 4; Athletic Club 2, 3; Memoirs Staff 4; A. A. Treasurer 4.

Earl Sugg "Clifford"

Earl is that enviable possessor of qualities that combine to make him the "answer to a maiden's prayer." He is a tall, lanky, light-haired youth with an attractive personality. He has gained a reputation as a smooth dancer and it is our hope that he may glide through life with the same ease.

Commercial Course

Basketball 2; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Athletic Club 2; A. A. Council 4; Glee Club 2.

Edward E. Wesenberg Jr. "Butch"

"Man Mountain Dean" is what he likes to be called, and we really don't blame him, because "Butch" is the tallest and heaviest fellow in school. He helps develop his stature by dipping ice cream at a local store. He is always keenly interested in scientific events or happenings. Score-keeping at basketball games could never be handled without him behind the table.

Scientific Course

Basketball Manager 2, 3, 4; Science Club 2, 3, 4.

James C. Zimmerman "Zitz"

It is easy to pick Zitz out of a crowd. His walk is like that of one who has springs on the balls of his feet. Basketball is the sport in which he excels. He has an effervescent humor which is continually bubbling up in the form of witty remarks boomed out in a deep bass voice.

Commercial Course

Basketball 2, 3, 4; Athletic Club 2, 3; A. A. Vice President 2.

Junior Class History

SEPTEMBER 8, 1937 — a momentous day! It marked the beginning of the third lap of our journey toward graduation and the end of our career as underclassmen. We then bore the dignified title of "Juniors."

At the first Junior Class meeting, the class was organized and the following officers were elected: Samuel Ottinger, president; William Rice, vice president; Margaret Yost, secretary; Charles Ihle, treasurer.

Three events made this year a memorable one for the Juniors: the arrival of class rings and pins; the presentation of the first Junior Class play, "China Boy"; the reception held for the Seniors.

And now, upon the threshold of our senior year, we extend our heartiest wishes to the Class of '38 who are about to leave us and start upon their careers.

Sophomore Class History

DURING the month of September a meeting of the Sophomore Class was called by Mr. Greene for the purpose of selecting class advisers. Mr. Davies and Miss Robinson were chosen. The following class officers were elected at that time: William Brown, president; Donald Bramwell, vice president; Guy Smith, secretary; Jennie Perrett, treasurer.

In December the Sophomores sold magazines to raise money for the class treasury. Prizes were awarded to some and a theater party was held for those who sold more than five subscriptions. Later in the year a bake sale was held. The climax of the year's program was the Sophomore party and dance.

Throughout the year the members of the Sophomore Class supported all the activities of the school and are now looking forward eagerly to an active year as Juniors.

Academic Typing Club

THE Academic Typing Club was organized by Miss Foster to give academic students an opportunity to learn how to type.

The work of this club should prove very valuable to its members for it gives them a chance to develop an ability sufficient for their personal needs. We are sure that in the future more non-commercial students will take advantage of the fine opportunity offered by this club.

The following are members:

Betsy Beardslee Ruth Beardslee Ruth Cornfeld
Margaret Overdorf Doris Silfies

Dramatic Club

THE Dramatic Club with Mr. Brown as director has completed another year of successful work. The weekly meetings were devoted to the reading and discussion of various plays. The members attended several productions of Plays and Players.

The outstanding event of the year was the club's production of the Senior Class Play, "Shirt Sleeves", a comedy which told the story of how the various members of the Rand family coped with their financial misfortunes during the depression. All members of the club took part in the production.

The social activities were climaxed by the annual picnic held in June.

The members of the club are as follows:

President .....George Spangenberg
Vice President.....Martha Malburg
Secretary .....Betty Hagy
Treasurer .....Earl Sugg

Francis Brown

Industrial Arts Theater Club

THE Industrial Arts Theater Club was organized by Mr. Davies, our new Industrial Arts teacher, for all boys interested in scenery construction and stage settings. The club has done remarkable work throughout the year, especially for the Junior and Senior Class plays. If the club fulfills the promise of its successful first year, we feel sure that there will be bigger and better dramatic productions in the future.

The Minstrel

THE Senior Class presented its annual minstrel on November 12, 1937. This event marked the opening of the new gymnasium to the public. Despite bad weather conditions, the class had a large turnout for its program.

The part of the interlocutor was very well handled by Thomas Haney. The room resounded with laughter at the jokes and crazy antics of the four endmen: Philomena Oricko, Charles Miller, Marion Muhr, and James Zimmerman. The chorus was made up of all pupils in the class who did not present individual performances.

The program consisted of the following:

Solo: Congetta Ronca—"You Can't Have Everything"

Specialty Skate Number: Beatrice Snyder

Endman Solo: Marion Muhr—"You Can't Stop Me from Dreaming"

Trio: Congetta Ronca, Doris English, and Martha Malburg—"Harbor Lights"

Tap Dance: Lucille Dougherty

Solo: Martha Malburg—"Roses in December"

Endman Solo: James Zimmerman—"We're Working Our Way Through College"

Pennsylvania Dutch Skit and Song: Catherine Harle

Solo: James Hobar—"Where or When"

Endman Solo: Charles Miller—"Sing You Sinners" and "Hallelujah"

Solo: Doris English—"Alice Blue Gown"

Skit: "Romeo and Juliet"

Solo: James Eddinger—"Have You Ever Been in Heaven"

Combination Tap Dance: Betty Hagy and Beatrice Snyder

Dancing Club

THIS year was marked by the introduction of a new club among our activities. Miss Sand, acting upon the requests of many students, organized a Dancing Club which has come to be exceedingly popular. The aim of this group is to develop a sense of rhythm and to teach the fundamental dance steps. One important outcome of this activity has been the increased pleasure which many students now find in attending our social affairs because they have learned how to dance.

Glee Club

THE Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs were combined into one group this year under the leadership of Miss Mary Robinson. This club furnished entertainment for assembly programs, P. T. A. meetings, and other school events.

Inasmuch as no operetta was planned for this year, the most important events were the Christmas Cantata and their participation in the annual spring music festival.

Christmas Vespers

THE annual Christmas Vespers, under the direction of Miss Mary Robinson, were presented by the Glee Club, assisted by the Junior Chorus, on December 22, 1937, in the school gymnasium.

An orchestra, led by Mr. Miller, furnished the music.

The Glee Clubs sang the cantata "The Childe Jesus", while the Nativity story was portrayed in tableaux, arranged by Mr. Brown.

The program consisted of the following:

1. The Annunciation
2. Apparition to the Shepherds
3. The Shepherds Journey to Bethlehem
4. The Wise Men
5. The Holy Family
6. Wise Men at the Manger
7. Mother and Child

Home Economics Club

BOTH boys and girls meet weekly in the Hospitality Room under the guidance of Miss Deily for the purpose of learning how to adapt themselves to various social situations.

The basic rules of etiquette, the art of table setting, and duties of the host and hostess are not only studied but are put into practice by the club members.

Science Club

THE Science Club with Mr. Stettler as supervisor is an organization for all boys interested in laboratory work. Club periods are spent in performing different chemical experiments.

Representatives of the club attended the annual meeting of the Junior Academy of Science, which was held at Bucknell University. The entire club took a trip to New York City in the spring. They visited Radio City, the Museum of Natural History, and various other places of interest.

Band

THE band, with Mr. Miller as director, celebrated its first anniversary November 17, 1937.

When the announcement was made that a school band was to be organized, only five boys and one girl responded. These members were Francis Brown, Walter Pierok, Norman Carl, Francis Reed, Paul Kipila, and Alma Fry. Due to growing interest the band now totals fifty-three members.

However, without the aid of Mr. Stettler, the financial support of the P. T. A., and the courtesy of the Moravian College Band, which lent a number of instruments, this organization would have been impossible. The school board also helped by purchasing a sousaphone and other equipment essential to the band.

They have entertained us on many occasions such as assemblies, P. T. A. meetings, patriotic programs, and basketball games at which they increased the enthusiasm of the Fountain Hill rooters.

A bigger and better band should result in the future due to the fact that it is comprised largely of students from the Junior High and early high school years.

Music Club

THE Music Club was organized by Miss Mary Robinson for students interested in instrumental music. The members with their instruments are: Pearl Keck and Charles Kuhns, accordions; Grace Beck, piano; and Phyllis Decker, guitar.

During club periods they perform for one another, and criticize musical radio programs to which they listen individually outside of school. From time to time Miss Robinson discusses with them various phases of music appreciation.

Library Club

ONLY two students, Anna Pierok and Doris Shaner, responded to the call issued by Miss Stehly for student librarians. This club should prove more popular in the future, inasmuch as it gives its members an opportunity to learn how to operate a library.

The club periods were spent in arranging books on shelves, checking books in and out, mending old books and caring for new books.

Debate Club

THE Debate Club was organized late in the year by Mr. Biro as it was necessary to recruit an entirely new group of members. Some of the subjects debated upon were: Chain Store Problem, Unicameral Legislative System, and the Anthracite Coal Situation. Several debates were held with neighboring schools during the year. The members include Betsy Beardslee, Ruth Cornfeld, Samuel Ottinger, and David Scoblionko.

Junior Red Cross Representatives

OUR Junior Red Cross Representatives, Grace Overdorf and Beatrice Snyder, have attended the meetings of this society for three years. These girls have served as a connecting link between the organization and our school.

ALTHOUGH somewhat handicapped this year due to the fact that an almost entirely new team had to be developed, the girls' team was quite successful, losing only seven out of the thirteen games played.

The following Senior girls have spent their last year in competition: Martha Malburg, Bertha Pongracz, Philomena Oricko, Congetta Ronca, Dorothy Gaal, and Beatrice Snyder.

With the following girls left as nucleus and with the same cooperation as was given this year, a splendid team may be anticipated for next year: Margaret Yost, Helen Check, Madalynne Shurts, Isabel Taylor, Gertrude Konrad, Anna Shine, Geraldine Hahn, Althea Steinke, and Caroline Fredericks.

COMPETING in its second season as a member of the Two-County League, our boys' team achieved an enviable record of eighteen victories and four defeats, with one game forfeited due to an ineligible player.

This year's squad was composed of practically the same members as that of last year. Six "first stringers" will graduate this year, namely Michael Geiger, Chester Klotz, Frank Mohap, Robert Sloyer, John Spirk, and James Zimmerman, nevertheless a highly efficient combine remains to carry on, in Henry Baumann, William Brown, William Rice (who saw little action this year because of illness), and Wilson Sloyer, together with several promising prospects from the Jayvee team and the Junior High School. Charles Ihle, a Junior member who played well this year will be ineligible because of the P. I. A. A. semester ruling.

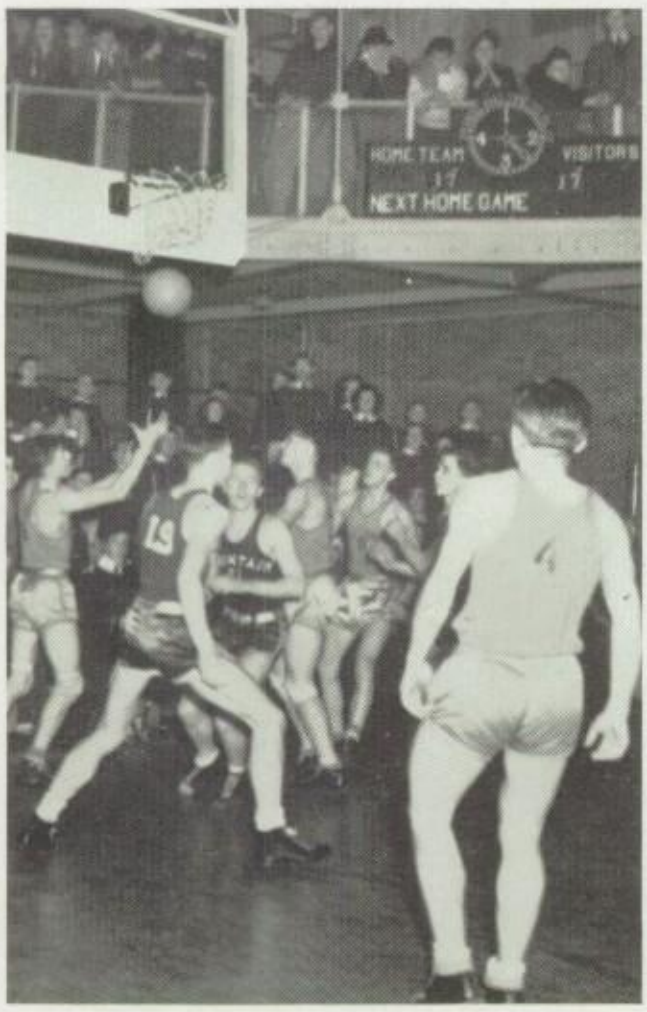
AFTER winning three warm-up games and giving a magnificent battle to Easton High, the team launched itself whole-heartedly into league competition, winning its first two games, then losing a thriller to South Whitehall. When the first half storm was over and the smoke of battle had cleared, the 'Hillers were tied for first place with South Whitehall. In the resulting play-off Fountain Hill played inspiring basketball, combining beautiful passing coordination with accurate shooting to take the game. Although no player stood out for his individual performance, scoring honors went to Chet Klotz and Frank Mohap, with thirteen and ten points respectively.

A slow start, with the loss of the first game in the second half series and the disappointment of forfeiting its second victory over South Whitehall, did not dampen the spirits of either team or supporters. Both showed their stuff during the remainder of the season which was traversed without a setback. Outstanding in this series was their victory over East Stroudsburg, a close game, packed with thrills.



By virtue of having won the first half championship, Fountain Hill met for the fourth time their arch-rivals, South Whitehall, the second half champs, to decide the league championship and the one to represent the league in the P. I. A. A. district play-offs. After a nip-and-tuck battle throughout the game, and with the score standing at 39-39 with but fifteen seconds to play, a desperate shot by the South Whitehall captain laid to rest our hopes for this year's title. As in all their games, the team played excellently, with Spirk standing out with fifteen points.

Cheerleaders

WITH snappy cheers and flashy uniforms, our cheerleaders have had no difficulty in arousing the enthusiasm of the Fountain Hill rooters at all pep meetings and athletic contests.

Their faithfulness and hard work contributed a great deal to the success of the team.

Last Will and Testament of Class of 1938

WE, the high and mighty Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-eight, having reached a stage of development slightly higher than that of imbeciles, are about to leave behind forever these broad halls, (lockers included), left through the compliments of the Public Works Administration. After much deep and serious concentration, having found ourselves of sane mind and more than sufficient reason, we do hereby make public our last will and testament, declaring null and void all preceding documents of like nature and content.

We, the Senior Class, bequeath to our successors, (Oh! how we love them), the honorable right to walk from the assembly exercises while the rest of the school looks on.

We also honor them with the privilege of sharing the first floor with Mr. Greene, our guiding spirit in our last year at deah old F. H. Hear! Hear!

We also leave our ability in salesmanship and poster printing to those who must remain for another year. Theirs is also the problem of expenses.

(Note—we would like to leave our sophistication to them also, but they seem to have learned that from us during the past year.)

Special bequests left by members of the Senior Class to members of the Junior Class are as follows:

Frank Mohap, Chester Klotz and John Spirk leave their power to sink the ball on the basketball court to Henry Baumann and William Rice.

Earl Sugg, the Fred Astaire of the Senior Class, leaves his trucking ability to Philip Vooz.

Doris English bestows upon Eleanor Manners the privilege of warbling like a nightingale.

James Zimmerman bestows upon Warren Zingler his ridiculous puns and bum jokes.

Francis Bender bequeaths his adorable school girl complexion to Walter Pierok.

Marion Muhr gives to Margaret Yost the job of handling all of the Senior Class records.

"Butch" Wesenberg wills some of his westward expansion to Charles Harlor who might be able to make good use of it.

To Madalynne Shurts and Helen Check goes the knack of getting around on the basketball floor from Martha Malburg and Philomena Oricko.

The members of the Senior Class who hail from Salisbury Township wish to hand down the privilege of using the new cafeteria for noon-day victuals to their successors from Salisbury.

George Spangenberg bestows on Sam Ottinger the job of taking care of most class activities.

Jimmy Hobar's smile of beauty goes to Lou Broderick.

To the Juniors, also, go the rights of getting into Miss Stehly's hair through their escapades in the conference room.

Marjorie Delp leaves her talent in "tickling the ivories" to Bruce Bachert.

Norman Carl wills his paint and brushes to Rosemary Hartzell.

Catherine Harle hands to Ruth Beardslee the thrill of standing behind the footlights on opening nights.

The gift of gab leaves Betty Hagy at this time in order that Jeanne Kunkle may carry on.

Our little piece of femininity, Evelyn Hafner, leaves her charm and pleasing personality to Grace Beck.

Edward Mittal and "Grog" Moyer cease their studying so that Alfred Ronca and Robert Rothrock may begin.

The "gang", with no consideration whatsoever for the teachers, pass on their ability of getting in bad with the faculty to the Junior "gang".

The members of the Class of 1938 do hereby appoint Lord Hammon Rye and Sir I. Vill Forgetit to see that every clause of this will is carried out in full and that the beneficiaries of said document receive their alloted bequests as above stated and use them to the best of their ability.

We hereby sign and seal this last will and testament of the exalted Class of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-eight.

Prophecy of the Class of 1938

TWO members of the Class of 1938 met by chance in Italy many years after graduation. Having heard no word concerning their former classmates, they were eager to seek the cave of Sibyl, as Ulysses and Aeneas once did, in hopes of finding on the mystifying leaves the fates of their classmates disclosed to them. These were the prophecies read from the leaves:

Francis Bender, after many years of struggling, has become Secretary of the Treasury in the President's cabinet.

Marion Muhr is the owner and manager of a large meat-packing plant in Schnecksville.

Grace Overdorf has recently been elected president of the Bethlehem Red Cross Chapter.

Doris English has established herself in a deluxe salon on Fifth Avenue, under the name of "Dee".

John Spirk is now head basketball coach at Pitt.

Michael Geiger is taking it easy and is now engaged in writing a book on "The Moral and Social Conditions in the U. S."

Catherine Harle and James Zimmerman are broadcasting over the Red, White and Blue Networks of station I. C. U., doing a Fibber Magee and Molly act.

Harold Shelly and Norman Carl are touring Africa, hunting big game.

Martha Malburg is "swinging" her way over the country, singing with Genny Boodman's famous band.

Frank Csrnko is the editor and fashion designer for "Esquire."

Philomena Oricko is the owner of a spaghetti palace on East Third Street.

Francis Brown is "going to town" with his own inimitable "swing band."

Marjorie Delp is defending her tennis title at Wimbledon.

Dorothy Gaal has done the unexpected and has become the first woman president of the U. S., as a successful candidate of the Socialist party.

Harvey Moser, tax assessor, was recently nominated a candidate for Mayor of Salisbury.

Congetta Ronca is teaching ballroom dancing under the capable direction of Arthur Murray.

Lewis Leach, Robert Nansteel, and Robert Ormiston are now being featured as the "Razzle Dazzle Hillbillies" in the Gold Room in Michael Ford's ultra-modern cafe on School Street.

Bertha Pongracz has just been crowned "Miss America" for the third consecutive year.

Earl Sugg is "tripping the light fantastic" with his partner Beatrice Snyder at the Waldorf-Astoria.

James Hobar is using his "Pepsodent Smile" to the best advantage, and is posing for toothpaste advertisements.

Chester Klotz is president of the Street Cleaners Association, and is assisted by such invaluable men as Edward Posch, Edward Brown and Stephen Bobick.

Claire Huff is doing magnificently, managing a turkish bath establishment.

Frank Mohap is playing professional basketball at Madison Square Garden.

Edward Wesenberg, now known as "Man Mountain Butch", has just been crowned the new "bone breaker" champion.

William Pfeifle is an instructor of ethics at Cedar Crest College.

Robert Sloyer, an admiral in the Navy, is cruising in the Mediterranean Sea.

Betty Hagy is doing some vigorous campaigning for an anti-noise reform.

George Spangenberg is president of Bethlehem's largest bank, assisted by his worthy secretary, Evelyn Hafner.

Thomas Haney, the handsome brute, is posing for collar ads for a famous magazine.

Charles Miller is hitting a new high in touring the country with his all-star minstrel show featuring James Eddinger, who is crooning his way into the hearts of the fairer sex.

Wallace Johnson is now quite prominent as a captain in the U. S. Army.

James Moyer is judging baby contests for Bush and Bull Corporation.

Edward Mittal, through long years of study, has succeeded in becoming president of Lehigh University.

Eugene Shurts has just been crowned "heavyweight champion" in the Bethlehem Globe-Times Boxing Tournament.

Anna Bruno has left this country and is now in Japan doing missionary work.

Angeline Lorenzo has gone back to her native land, Spain, and is teaching English in a high school.

Thus the leaves had prophesied. We record the fates of this class, hoping for the indulgence of our classmates if some fates are a bit misconstrued or misinterpreted.

Poem

There was a young lady named Stella,
Fell in love with a bow-legged fella,
This risky young chap
Let her sit on his lap,
And she fell right through to the cella.

A Girl Is Like . . .

A book: usually bound to please.
A train: often gets on the wrong track.
A magazine: lots of fiction beneath the cover.
A program: subject to change without notice.
An automobile: often runs people down.
A lamp: apt to flare up and get turned down.
A banjo: often picked on by her friends.
A thermometer: often of very high degree.
A cigar: inclined to be puffed up at all times.
A stove: often needs a new lid.

Definition: Education is the inculcation of the comprehensible into the ignorant by the incompetent

* * * *

Philomena Oricko: "Did you hear about the skunk that went to church."
Charles Miller: "No, why?"
Phil: "He sat in his own pew and gave a (s)cent."

* * * *

Frank Csrnko: "Let's cut classes today and go to a show."
Wallace Johnson: "Can't do it. I need the sleep."

* * * *

Description: It takes years of practice before a ski-jumper stops looking like someone being thrown out of a saloon.

* * * *

Frank Mohap: "What's worse than raining cats and dogs?"
Claire Huff: "I don't know, unless it's hailing a street car."

* * * *

Mr. Geiger: "Well, I received a note from your teacher today."
Michael: "Honest, Pop? Give me a quarter and I won't breathe a word about it."

* * * *

Betty Hagy: "Can you drive with one arm?"
Bill Haney: "Sure, I can."
Betty: "O. K., have an apple."

* * * *

Dorothy Gaal: "I'm afraid to go down the street, it's so dark."
Chester Klotz: "But I'm with you."
Dot: "That's why I'm afraid."

* * * *

A teacher called for sentences using the word beans.
"My father grows beans," said the bright boy of the class.
"My mother cooks beans," said another pupil.
Then a third popped up, "We are all human beans."

A visitor at the High School: "Is that the English Department over there?"
Francis Brown: "Yes, that's our Chamber of Commas."

* * * *

Miss Todd: "What does rex fugit mean?"
Bertha Pongracz: "The king flees."
Miss Todd: "Make it perfect tense by using has."
Bertha: "The king has flees."

* * * *

An absent-minded man was deep in his work when his wife called out to him: "Henry! Billy has swallowed all the ink in the inkpot! Whatever shall we do?"
"Write with a pencil, I suppose," was the dreamy reply.

* * * *

Mrs. Posch: "Well, Edward, what have you been doing all afternoon?"
Edward: "Shooting craps."
Mrs. Posch: "That must stop. Those little things have as much right to live as you have."

* * * *

Mr. Gribbin: "Zimmerman where's your pencil?"
Zitz: "Ain't got one."
Mr. Gribbin: "You shouldn't say that; listen, you don't have any, I don't have any, they don't have any, we don't have . . . . . "
Zitz: "Well, where are all the pencils?"

* * * *

"Toots" Muhr (to the druggist): "Could you fix me a dose of castor oil so the oil won't taste?"
Druggist: "Certainly. Won't you have a soda while you wait?"
"Toots": "Thanks." (drinks soda)
Druggist: "Something else, Miss?"
"Toots": "No, just the oil."
Druggist: "You just drank it."
"Toots": "Oh dear, and I wanted it for my brother."
